On Eagles' Wings

Dear Parents,

The calendar incorrectly has Science Week scheduled for next week (March 16-20). Science Week will instead be the week of March 30 – April 3. More information on the activities of the week will come out soon.

Next Friday, March 20 is a Minimum Day for Parent Teacher Conferences. These conferences are optional and available if either the parent or the teacher sees a need to meet. If you would like to set up a conference with your child's teacher, please call and schedule a time with the teacher. Although PALS will be open on March 20 for students who will be here as an extension of the school day, it will not be available for you to drop off your child during your parent teacher conference. It is too difficult for us to staff PALS when we don't know when students will be there.

Once again, please turn in requests for Financial Aid by March 31. We do have funds available for financial aid, but we need to know by the end of the month how many have need of assistance.

In Christ,
Joel D. Wahlers
Principal

8. Mission India projects:

Business Directory: Sarah Santora and Jeanette Russell are putting together a directory of businesses which are owned and/or operated by the St. John’s Lutheran Church and School community. We are asking for a business card or a 2 ½” x 3” ad with your business name, address, phone number, e-mail address (if you choose), your name and $5.00. This directory will be published as a courtesy and convenience to our church and school community. There will be no expectation of discounts or preferential treatment, just the opportunity for us to patronize a fellow church or school community individual’s business. If interested, pick up a return envelope in the school or church office and mail the information to the noted address by Monday, March 16, 2009. We are doing this as a “Multiplication Project” sending all proceeds to Mission India. If you have any questions please contact Sarah at 224-2655 or Jeanette at 254-8050.
